DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group I, in the reply filed on 5 September 2007 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the search should cover both Groups and therefore there is no burden on the examiner. This is not found persuasive because the restriction is based on lack of unity of the groups. Also the groups have different searches and a full search of the article may not require a full search of the method claims.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

2. Claims 1, 3-11, 26, 28-36 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

It is unclear where the phrase "without purposely tensioning the gasket after mounting to the plate" in claim 1 and the phrase "without purposely tensioning the thin film after mounting to the plate" in claim 26 are supported in the original specification. There appears to be no disclosure of tensioning after joining that would allow a basis for the exclusion of this step in the instant claims.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Barringer (U.S. 5,891,295).

See Figure 1 and the abstract. The device is taken as being capable of holding a fuel cell membrane.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 3-11 and 28-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Barringer et al (U.S. 5,891,295).

Barringer et al. teaches a frame that can hold a membrane by the use of adhesive (col. 3, lines 30-55). The instant invention claims the use of fasteners, vacuum and magnetic force to hold the membrane to the frame. Substitution of any of these known alternative holding mechanisms that are used in work holders, is taken as being within the ordinary skill of the art.

7. Applicant's arguments filed 5 September 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the film and gasket of Barringer et al. are not detachable. Elements 22 and 24 of Barringer et al. that are equivalent to the instant gasket are movable and therefore detachable. The film is detachable from the frame members (col. 5, lines 33-40). The film and frame of Barringer et al. do not have to be tensioned. Thus they are capable of meeting the instant claim limitation of the gasket and the film not being tensioned after joining.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
